

---

Contents

Summaries	117
Editorial
Brexit, competition law and private enforcement Molly Herron, Sarah Long and Matthew O'Regan	121
Papers Presented at the 10th Junior Competition Conference (JCC)
Brexit? Divergence and convergence in UK and EU competition law
Rip it up and start again? Cartel regulation post-Brexit Nicholas Querée	125
Brexit: the implications for EU and UK merger control Paul Johnson	131
Brexit: exit stage left for competition damages? Anneli Howard	139
Private enforcement: calm before the storm?
Class certification – how the CAT might learn from Canada and the USA Jennifer Reeves	145
New economic questions in ‘opt-out’ collective actions Joseph Bell and Kimela Shah	163
Implementing the Damages Directive – will the UK maintain its competitive advantage? James Flett	171
Article
The role of competition law in UK competitiveness Peter Freeman	179
Book Review	189